

The WBMA Educational Link Scholarship Fund 2001 Scholarship Recipients

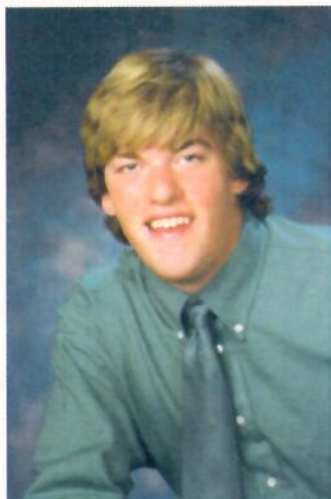

Dan Cahir will graduate this June from Garfield High School in Seattle, WA. He plans to study economics at Claremont-McKenna in Claremont, CA.

During high school, Dan was active in debate team, soccer and was a National Merit Finalist.

Dan was involved in the YMCA as a teen leader and summer camp counselor. He was named YMCA Volunteer of the Year in 1999.

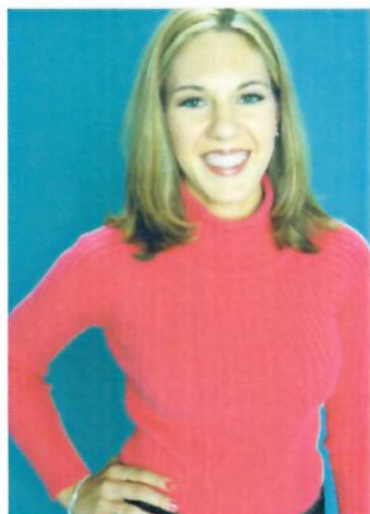

He plans to pursue a career in business and has a strong interest in the building materials industry.

Samuel D. Parry will graduate this May from Nampa Senior High School in Nampa, ID. He has been accepted to the University of Idaho and plans to study pre-med, education or journalism.

Samuel has been an active member of the ski team, soccer, football and honor roll. He was the sports editor for the school newspaper and likes to volunteer his time to help in the church nursery taking care of children. He is an active member in the Boy Scouts of America achieving the rank of Eagle Scout.

It is Samuel's hopes to find an occupation that is either helping or teaching people.

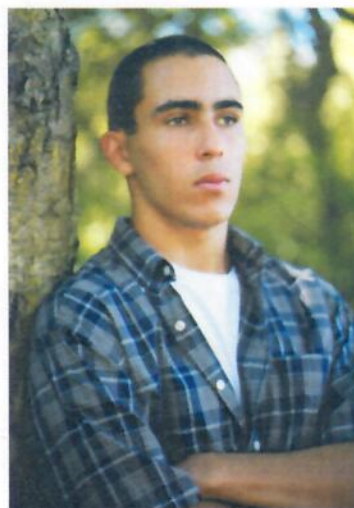

Shannon West will graduate from Willamette High School in Eugene, OR. She will be attending Oregon State University and plans to study Business and Marketing.

During high school, Shannon was active in National Honor Society, varsity volleyball, DECA, varsity jazz band and basketball. She also likes to volunteer at senior citizen and children's functions while being a positive role model and peer counselor.

In twenty years, she sees herself owning a successful marketing and advertising company, having a family and being a contributing member of her community.

Robert J. Lovato will graduate from Chimacum High School this June in Chimacum, WA. He has been accepted to the University of Washington to study Law.

During high school, Robert was active in football, track, the National Honor Society, interact club and Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA). He was chosen for senior class treasurer, honor roll and student of the month.

Robert has worked the last 4 to 5 years at True Value Hardware and Lumber Yard performing cashier duties as well as stocking the store shelves. It is Robert's hope to one day make legal representation available to everyone regardless of his or her earnings or social status.
